Question

Hi Max.height,

Thanks for keep posting, it's much appreciated. I was wondering if you can see what is happening on the Coronavirus as it has been massive impact to me and my family. I can see use of the media to control information to Public although there are other alternative views on internet, plus the possibilities of using covid-19 to reduce civil liberties.

The other thing is lots of activities/shops/pubs have stopped, but the Tattvas are still there, do they operate on a different level, so does zoom video conf become the new way to socialise? Some activities have increased shopping for food. Any thoughts?

Thanks

Steve
